SUBJECT : National Intelligence Council Briefing

1. Thank you very much for arranging to have the National Intelligence Council briefed on Israeli operations in Lebanon. Your briefing team not only gave us an excellent presentation but responded to questions in an informed and forthright manner letting us know what was factual knowledge, estimate, and just as important, what the gaps in our knowledge were. Its performance was a great credit to your organization and to the analysis it is doing.

2. Please express my personal thanks, as well as those of the rest of the audience, to the four members of the team--
